

THE FASHION SCHOOL

“Inspiring Students To Become Resourceful And Creative Fashion Leaders”

The Fashion School, Rockwell Hall

KEY FACTS

- Founded: 1983
- Enrollment: 1,500 students
- Degrees Offered: BA Fashion Design; BS Fashion Merchandising; MBA Program in Fashion offered jointly with College of Business
- Accreditation: National Association of Schools of Arts and Design
- Faculty: 19 (full-time); 9 (part-time)
- Campus: Kent, OH (main); New York, NY; Florence, Italy
- Library: 3,500 books, 50 periodicals, 300 A/V titles; forecasting publications; historically significant designer sketchbooks, fabrics
- Museum: 40,000 pieces; finest period costume collection in U.S.; comprehensive fashion design collection from 18th century onwards

RECOGNITION

- Ranked in top 3 Fashion Schools in North America
- Ranked among world's top 15 Fashion Schools
- Named Ohio “Center of Excellence” by Board of Regents
- Director Campbell and Prof. Quevedo won “International Artist Of 2010” at Fashion Art Biennale, Seoul, South Korea
- China Fashion Week 2011 invited 7 students and 3 faculty on all-expenses paid trip to present their collections in Beijing

Dana Buchman and Leonardo Ferragamo on campus talking to students

HIGHLIGHTS

- Superior, Well Rounded Education. World's only elite Fashion School in a comprehensive, 4 year liberal arts university. Superior educational experience produces students with better analytical, communication, and leadership skills
- Global Perspective. 250 students each year study at School's campuses in New York's Garment District, and 15th century palazzo in Florence, and in exchange programs in London, Paris, Hong Kong, and Beijing
- Digital Focus. “TechStyleLAB” is the only digital design and production facility of its kind in an U.S. Fashion School which brings together teaching, research and commercial services into one space
- Exceptional Student Opportunities. Hundreds of internships annually at places like Saks, Armani and Vogue. Students also organize and present their collections at an annual fashion show attended by industry luminaries
- Financial Aid. Largest endowed scholarship base in University
- Advisory Board. Top industry leaders including designers, merchandisers and CEOs help School fulfill its mission and stay connected to marketplace

250+ students each year study in Florence, New York, Hong Kong